"The ACT Test Preparation Course taught at Mount Carmel significantly improved my daughter's test scores. I would highly recommend this course to those students looking to perform well for the first time or increase their scores if they have already taken the test."

- Cathy Nerin, mother of Ashley ('11)

"I credit the ACT Princeton Review course offered at Mount Carmel for helping boost my daughter's ACT test score. This intensive class reviews subject areas, provides test taking tips, and offers personal feedback that will provide your child with positive results. I encourage any student looking to improve her score to participate in the nationally acclaimed Princeton Review ACT preparatory program" – Catherine Groos, mother of Allison ('11)

Class instruction includes preparation for all five parts of the ACT. The class will be team taught by teachers from Mount Carmel Academy using Princeton Review Materials and Online Resources. In the event that classes are missed, there will be a uniform make-up policy announced at the beginning of the class based on enrollment and which days of the week work best for participants.
